

Hester, an attorney, is former chairman of CWMTF and serves on the Pamlico-Tar River Foundation board of directors.

McMillan, an attorney, serves on the executive committee of the North Carolina State Bar and board of directors for both the Law Alumni Association at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and Friends of the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences.

The 18-member CWMTF Board of Trustees selects projects for funding twice a year. The governor, Senate president pro tempore and House of Representatives speaker appoint six members each.

###